David Craig Rotenberg Attends Exclusive Conference For Select Jewelers

March 31, 2008, Newtown, PA — David Craig Rotenberg, owner of David Craig Jewelers in the Summit Square Shopping Center in Newtown/Langhorne, was among a select group of jewelers from the United States invited to attend the Diamond Promotion Service Conference, “Catch The Wave,” held in Bermuda March 17 and 18. Approximately 20 of the country’s most qualified and credentialed diamond and jewelry experts attended the conference, which focused on the sale and management of fine jewelry.

Mr. Rotenberg, who has operated his store for more than 35 years, is a Certified Gemologist and Certified Gemologist Appraiser with The American Gem Society and one of only a handful of jewelers in the country who have received the CAPP certification (Certified Appraiser of Personal Property) in Gemstones and Jewelry from the International Society of Appraisers. He also holds a Graduate Gemologist Diploma from the Gemological Institute of America.

Among his many professional memberships, he is a past president of the American Gem Society’s Jewelers Education Foundation, and the founder and past president of its Keystone Guild. He also founded and is the past president of the Delaware Valley chapter of the International Society of Appraisers.

He has received numerous professional awards and recognition throughout his career including the International Society of Appraisers’ Leadership Award and its Designation and Review Award. Mr. Rotenberg is frequently sought by the media for his expertise in the appraisal and value of fine diamonds and jewelry, and he has been featured on Prime Time Live with Diane Sawyer, as well as other broadcast news programs.

Mr. Rotenberg operates a fully accredited state-of-the-art American Gem Society Gem Lab at his retail store and is among a select group of jewelers who comprise the Jewelers Vigilance Committee Appraisal Bar. For more information about David Craig Jewelers, please visit www.davidcraigjewelers.com.
